Christmas Light-up Ceremony on 24 November 2017 at The Fullerton Hotel Singapore

Toast to the start of the festive season over complimentary Glühwein (mulled wine) and hot chocolate, and nibble on roasted chestnuts, candy floss, caramelised popcorn and Christmas cookies at The Fullerton's iconic annual Christmas Light-up Ceremony. Watch a parade of our hotel staff come together in a candle-lit march-in to the tune of "The Little Drummer Boy", performed by handbell ringers from the Ministry of Bellz. In their only local performance this festive season, the musical ensemble will showcase a medley of classic Christmas carols while our Fullerton Santa Bear mascots make special appearances for photo-taking and a dance or two.

"Fullerton Charity Cook-off" Buffet Dinner on 24 November 2017 at Town Restaurant

Following the Christmas Light-up Ceremony at the hotel's Grand Staircase, a Masterchef-style Charity Cook-off will fire up at Town Restaurant. Cavaliere Giovanni Viterale, General Manager of The Fullerton Heritage will specially don Chef's Whites for the occasion and participate in a "mystery box" charity cook-off against some media friends. Diners will have the opportunity to taste and vote for their favourite "mystery box" dishes, which will complement the bountiful festive spread of housemade charcuterie of Wild Mushroom Terrine, and Duck Roulade with Hazelnuts and Prunes; a smorgasbord of fresh ocean spray; a carvery station featuring Manuka and Soy-glazed Champagne Ham with Spiced Pineapple Chutney, and Traditional Turkey with Yorkshire Pudding. The "Fullerton Charity Cook-off" Buffet Dinner on 24 November 2017 is priced at S$98 nett per adult; S$25 nett from each adult dining patron will be donated to President's Challenge in support of the underprivileged and the needy.
