FROM 9 TO 14 OCTOBER 2017

SINGAPORE, 14 September 2017 – Following two successful editions of The Fullerton Hotel's "Home Of The Stars" series this year, the spotlight turns to Chef Luigi Salomone from one Michelin-starred restaurant Piazzetta Milù in Naples, Italy, who will guest stint at The Lighthouse Restaurant from 9 to 14 October 2017.

A native of Naples, Chef Salomone was very much involved in his family's butchery business through his growing years, where he cultivated a passion for food and cooking at a young age. He began his culinary career at the two Michelin-starred restaurant Taverna Estia in his hometown, where he honed his craft under the tutelage of Chef Francesco Sposito. In 2015, at the age of 27, Chef Salomone became Chef de Cuisine at Piazzetta Milù. The following year, the restaurant was honoured with its first Michelin star.

During his guest stint at The Lighthouse Restaurant, Chef Salomone will present dishes inspired by the inventive daily repertoire at Piazzetta Milù. Expect twists to traditional dishes with infusions of quintessential Italian beverages in Coffee-flavoured Tagliatella with Sweet Prawns and Pulverised Orange Zest, and Campari-roasted Duck with Fennel and Spinach.

In conveyance of the saying “la dolce vita” or “the sweet life”, Chef Salomone transports you to Southern Italy with Rum-soaked Neapolitan Baba cakes topped with yoghurt and fresh berries, and Banana Caffè e Pisto Napoletano – where the cake is made with an age-old Neapolitan-blend of spices.
