SINGAPORE, 28 October 2016 – Always well-received with guests, The Fullerton Hotel Singapore's Indian offerings will be further ramped up from 9 to 20 November, when chefs from The Leela Ambience Gurgaon Hotel & Residences – a property of The Leela Palaces, Hotels and Resorts luxury hotel group – will descend on our shores to lend their culinary mastery.

Leading the charge is Indian master chef, Harish Tiwari, who has over 12 years of experience gleaned from establishments such as The Park Hotel New Delhi, Shangri-La New Delhi, and Hyatt Regency Gurgaon. Chef Tiwari approaches Indian food with a new perspective, bringing the same contemporary presentations he is known for at Diya, the elegant modern Indian restaurant situated within The Leela Ambience Gurgaon Hotel & Residences.

Chef Tiwari is already familiar with The Fullerton Hotel Singapore's chefs, having cooked with Executive Sous Chef Richard Ng and his team when they headed up to Gurgaon for a 'culinary exchange' between 15 October and 23 October 2016, showcasing Singaporean delights like Seafood Hor Fun, Chilli Crab and Chicken Rice.

“It’s our turn to represent the best of our region’s cuisine, and we’re extremely excited to be able to do so in an iconic building with such a rich heritage,” Chef Tiwari says.

On weekdays, The Lunch Buffet Menu at South Courtyard of The Fullerton Hotel Singapore will feature Chicken Tikka and Chaat salads, six hot stations including Kashmiri Rogan Josh (an aromatic lamb dish) and Subz Biryani, a vegetable rice dish with origins in Hyderabad. Expect carving, live and kebab stations as well, where salmon is marinated with aromatic spices and expertly grilled to retain their juicy textures.

The fare is equally plentiful for vegetarians, who have Pav Bhaji (a thick Maharashtran vegetable curry), Kutri Bhindi (okra tempered with homemade spices), and Palak Ka Halwa (a sweetened spinach pudding) to choose from, amongst many more.

At dinner, The Leela’s specialities will be unveiled at Town, where the extensive buffet comprises at least 15 signature selections in addition to the restaurant’s regular line-up. Try the novel Kathal Biryani, made with fried raw jackfruit and a delicious blend of spices with basmati rice, or stick to the familiar comforts of Bhatti da Murg, a Punjab dish where chicken legs are marinated overnight in fine spices and cooked over a charcoal grill. From Wednesdays to Saturdays, highlights include additional seafood and barbecue selections.

On 13 and 20 November, Chef Tiwari will put together a lavish Sunday brunch. Keep the champagne flowing alongside tongue-tingling dishes such as Kekda Kalimirch, black pepper crabs which pack a powerful punch; and Mahi Koftag Qualiyan, dumplings moulded from the sweet water murrel fish.
