Whistler's leading boutique hotel applauded by leading travel authority

Whistler, BC (October 8, 2019) – Condé Nast Traveler announced the results of its annual Readers' Choice Awards yesterday, recognizing Nita Lake Lodge as the #6 Top Resort in Canada, with a score of 95.78/100.

“We are extremely proud to be recognized alongside some incredible destination resorts, in awards that are widely regarded as the benchmark for the travel industry globally,” says Theresa Lambert, General Manager of Nita Lake Lodge. “Our continued recognition motivates our team to continue our commitment to providing guests with a wealth of captivating experiences, exceptional customer service, accommodation, spa and dining, in a location surrounded by a stunning mountain and lake backdrop.”

According to Condé Nast Traveler editors: “Comfort is paramount here: double-soaker tubs, basalt-rock fireplaces, and heated floors offer an intimate counterpoint to sporty Whistler. The only lakeside property, it’s a short jaunt from Creekside lifts. Though the area lacks not for activities, the spa provides above-average athleticism in its offerings and the Lodge’s cuisine is worth staying in for.”

More than 600,000 Condé Nast Traveler readers across the globe submitted a record-breaking number of responses rating their travel experiences to provide a full snapshot of where and how we travel today. The Condé Nast Traveler Readers’ Choice Awards are the longest-running and most prestigious recognition of excellence in the travel industry and are commonly known as “the best of the best of travel.” The full list of winners can be found here.
