

EXCLUSIVE RESORT TAKEOVER AT ROUND HILL HOTEL AND VILLAS
Celebrate Milestone Birthdays, Retirements, Multi-Generational Travel, Weddings and Events at Timeless Montego Bay Resort

MONTEGO BAY, JAMAICA (March 2017) – For the luxury traveller, 2017 is all about bringing your favourite people together to share unforgettable experiences. The picturesque 110-acre resort, Round Hill Hotel and Villas in Montego Bay, Jamaica offers the ideal location for travellers wishing to book the entire resort for a celebration. Whether the occasion is a destination wedding, milestone birthday, graduation, celebratory anniversary, retirement or reunion, Round Hill will meet and exceed every need for guests participating in a full resort takeover. In the past five years, Round Hill has hosted five full resort takeovers for CEOs, dignitaries, celebrities and others.

A full resort takeover for three nights starts from US$320,000 (approx. £261,920) with optional add-ons the resort can seamlessly coordinate for the group, including bespoke spa packages, chartered yachts, Olympic-style group competitions, off-property excursions such as horseback riding, swimming in private waterfalls, ATV tours, or even setting private reservations at some of the trendiest restaurants on the island.

For accommodations, guests may choose between four villa options – from two to six bedrooms – each with its own dedicated staff, including a housekeeper, cook and gardener, allowing guests to unwind with loved ones while the villa staff takes care of their every need. In addition to villas, Round Hill offers the Pineapple House, a 36-room hotel option with interiors designed by American fashion icon, Ralph Lauren.

For daytime activities, Round Hill boasts multiple options of water-sports activities that everyone can enjoy – ranging from low-key to action packed. Natural coral reefs and exotic tropical fish can be viewed on board the resort's own glass bottom boat or via a complimentary snorkelling session. Water skiing and wakeboarding are options for the enthusiastic athletes of the group. Less active members can enjoy sunning themselves on the beach or reclining under a beachside umbrella, while being catered to by the property's dedicated staff. For groups who would like to venture beyond the property, the resort's concierge is always available to book an array of family and group excursions in the local area including rainforest and waterfall tours, visits to historical sites, and more.

Beyond the natural splendour of the property, Round Hill offers modern amenities including the impressive fitness centre/gym and outdoor yoga pavilion. With customised exercise regimes provided by the resort's onsite fitness instructor, as well as new Cybex fitness equipment, even the most dedicated gym enthusiast will be impressed. Group sessions are also offered at the open-air yoga studio with breathtaking views of the ocean - the ideal place to meditate and de-stress from the outside world.

For younger guests, there are excellent opportunities to equally enjoy the property. The Pineapple Kids' Club and 7-Up Club will keep children (aged 3-12 years) entertained with a range of activities including: basketball, art as well as craft and nature walks.

While children embark on a plethora of fun activities, adults can indulge in an array of treatments and wellness classes at The Spa at Round Hill. It is located in a beautifully restored 18th century plantation house on 10 acres of beachfront lawn. Facilities include a full-service beauty salon, ten treatment rooms as well as the Garden Loft amidst the lush Jamaican rainforest. The waterfront lawn is also used for post-treatment relaxation, afternoon yoga classes and massages by the sea. The Spa features aromatherapy lifestyle products by Elemis along with Round Hill's own all-natural local blends that capture the spirit and rhythm of Jamaica.

On a culinary level, guests will enjoy daily breakfast and afternoon tea, as well as sumptuous dinners from Round Hill's Executive Chef Martin Maginley's menu. The resort has a special focus on farm-to-table dining, where natural ingredients from Round Hill's organic garden or local Jamaican farmers are incorporated into menus. In addition to the resort's restaurants, there are special dining options ranging from a romantic gazebo dinner overlooking the ocean and starlit sky, to a memorable family beachside dinner which offers a custom-designed menu to please every culinary palate. Finally, Round Hill also provides varied nightly entertainment, including a live reggae band, steel drum and calypso band.

With the full resort takeover, all 110-acres will be at the guest's disposal.
