I'LL TAKE MANHATTAN

From Times Square to Wall Street, New York City's hotel scene is booming. T+L picks the best of the new arrivals—and takes a sneak peek at some of this fall's biggest openings. By Catesby Holmes

THE CHATWAL ↑

Art Deco interiors (oak paneling; terrazzo floors) recall the glamour of Broadway's golden era at this 88-room property.

We love The Lamb's Club Restaurant's oversized stone fireplace. 130 W. 44th St.; 888/524-2892; thechatwalny.com; doubles from $695.

EVENTI, A KIMPTON HOTEL ←

A landscaped 5,000-square-foot terrace on the fifth floor will remind you that you're in the heart of the Flower District. Textured walls add a playful touch to the 292 guest rooms. We love The hotel's iPhone app, which lets you order room service from anywhere in the city. 851 Sixth Ave.; 866/996-8396; eventihotel.com; doubles from $349.

FASHION 26 - A WYNDHAM HOTEL ↓

A fan of Project Runway? At this design-minded spot, the front desks are backed by colorful spools of thread and luggage carts are made from repurposed clothing racks. Happily, the 280 understated rooms are more about comfort than couture. We love Daily Best-Dressed Guest contests (top prize: a free room upgrade). 152 W. 26th St.; 877/999-3223; 126nyc.com; doubles from $299.

JAMES NEW YORK →

Opening in September, this Modernist addition to SoHo has a permanent art collection and 114 rooms with natural linen bedding and reclaimed-wood floors. We love Wall-size murals by area artists. 27 Grand St.; 888/526-3778; jameshotels.com; doubles from $345, including breakfast.

ANDAZ 5TH AVENUE ↑

The city's second Andaz has Tony Chi interiors in sophisticated muted tones, an intimate bar, and 184 rooms with marble-clad bathrooms.

We love An in-house book collection selected by staffers at the nearby New York Public Library. 485 Fifth Ave.; 212/601-1234; andaz.com; doubles from $435.

GANSEVOORT PARK AVENUE ←

This summer New Yorkers are flocking to the hotel's much-anticipated rooftop, with its indoor-outdoor pool and lounges with fireplaces. Most of the 249 spacious rooms have balconies and floor-to-ceiling windows.

We love A welcoming gift of Prosecco in every room. 420 Park Ave. S.; 877/426-7386; gansevoorthotelgroup.com; doubles from $395.

NOLITAN HOTEL →

Set to debut at summer's end, Nolita's first hotel radiates low-key hipness and local charm (bath products come from the nearby Red Flower store). The 55 rooms are compact, but glass walls and balconies create a sense of space. We love Complimentary bikes—and, for the more daring, skateboards. 30 Kenmare St.; 877/665-4826; nolitanhotel.com; doubles from $325.

W NEW YORK - DOWNTOWN →

With 217 futuristic guest rooms and unrivaled skyline vistas, this 57-story tower will bring a dose of style to Wall Street this fall.

We love Sleek modular furniture by Graft in every room. 123 Washington St.; 866/961-2860; whotels.com; doubles from $269.
