THE SAUJANA HOTEL LAUNCHES ONLINE SHOPPING

Unveiling of Food and Premium Consumer Goods Ordering on Brand Web App

Shah Alam, November 2020 - The Saujana Hotel Kuala Lumpur has launched Online Shopping services to allow guests to enjoy their favourite dishes, fresh produce and premium consumer goods in the comfort of their homes.

The development and timely unveiling of the web app was to enhance and provide a convenient option for guests' premium produce purchase. The newly added tab on the brand website features cuisines from each of the hotel's dining establishments.

"This addition will augment the hotel's food and beverage offerings leveraging a digital platform to address a growing consumer demand for online gourmet food ordering services that is hygienic and safe. Online Shopping will scale up in the months ahead to include more gourmet and delicatessen-based food choices as well as premium consumables," said Mr Peter Hourigan, The Saujana Hotel's Vice President of Operations.

With a constellation of cuisine options, from Ti Chen Chinese Restaurant, offering inspirational Cantonese cuisines and Dim Sum, Charcoal Restaurant, offering the finest grilled meats and seafood, and Kogetsu Japanese Restaurant serving an array of specialties from the Land of the Rising Sun, will have any distinguish foodie's approval. There are also a myriad of luxury beverages and cigars, freshly prepared cakes and pastries so guests can dress up special occasions. The highlight of the Online Shopping web app are the fresh produce available at competitive prices where guests can purchase top-quality prime cuts of beef, lamb and seafood.

Weekly promotions and chef recommendations are featured on the new tab besides the brand's social media platforms. Christmas and other festive offerings will be featured too. Only online payments are accepted and guests can collect their order at Cooks Deli, located at the lobby.

Orders can be placed daily via the Online Shopping link <https://bit.ly/31Er1r>
