[Macau, July 8, 2021] With a nod to art, culture and heritage, Artyzen Grand Lapa Macau, in collaboration with the Association Casa de Portugal Macao, presents ‘Fado Nights at Café Bela Vista’ this summer for Macau locals and visitors to re-discover the big charm in the city.

The Hotel also launches an array of art-inspired kids program as well as exclusive spa and picnic staycation packages for families to enjoy the good things in life.

Fado is the national treasure of Portugal, a beautiful performance genre incorporating live music with traditional tapas and wine, capturing the authentic history, culture and identity of Portugal. It is part of the UNESCO intangible cultural heritage and considered as one of the must-do experiences—and the most seductive charms when travelers visit Portugal.

As Artyzen Grand Lapa Macau is celebrating its new hotel brand, the Hotel joins forces together with Casa de Portugal Macao to transport guests on a discovery of Fado at its charming Café Bela Vista. In the restaurant, with its classic elegance and heritage architecture, guests will be able to indulge in the most authentic Portuguese tapas and wine menu helmed by Chef Pedro Do Carmo, choosing from crispy-roasted suckling pig, gratinated goat's cheese with honey, Portuguese cheese platter to 'Pata-negra' cured ham while listening to the achingly beautiful Fado music.

'To experience Fado is to feel the heartbeat of Portugal, and to listen to its musical soul. Throughout the renaming and rebranding journey, we are thrilled to present Fado Nights at Café Bela Vista, a perfect combination of the authentic Portuguese art, culture and cuisine. It is a feast of all senses, an above and beyond dining journey.' said Mr. Rutger Verschuren, Area Vice President, Macau Operations of Artyzen Hospitality Group and General Manager of Artyzen Grand Lapa Macau.

'We would also like to thank our partner Casa de Portugal for guiding us to the Fado music scene, inspiring our guests with this uplifting art form as a unique way to enjoy the good things in life.'

'We are honored and thankful to be given such a valuable opportunity to celebrate the iconic Portuguese culture at the beautiful Artyzen Grand Lapa Macau. The chance is rare, yet important for us all to keep the culture alive. We hope everyone will enjoy the soulful and impassioned music we have prepared for all this summer.' said Ms. Maria Amélia António, President of Casa de Portugal.

'Fado Nights at Café Bela Vista' will be featuring solo singer Tomas Ramous de Deus with acoustic guitar Miguel Andrade from Casa de Portugal every Thursday night, starting July 1, 2021.
