KICK OFF THE BIG GAME WITH GAME ANALYST/FORMER ARIZONA CARDINALS PLACEKICKER JAY FEELY AT WKP SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT ON FEBRUARY 13

Local Phoenix resident and 14-year NFL veteran will take part in a live Q&A, sign autographs and pose for photos at the We-Ko-Pa Casino Resort's fun sports bar-themed restaurant

WHAT: While The Big Game is playing on multiple TVs throughout WKP Sports & Entertainment, NFL game analyst and 14-year placekicker Jay Feely will share career highlights, take part in a live Q&A, pose for photographs, and sign autographs. Autographed pro football giveaways, a live DJ, and game-day fare and drink specials will celebrate this special guest appearance.

Patrons can earn entries through casino play beginning February 7, and will receive additional bonus entries the day of The Big Game (200 for every Super Platter ordered, 50 with the purchase of any entrée, appetizer or dessert.)

WHO: A placekicker in the NFL for 14 years, most notably with the Arizona Cardinals (2010-13) and Atlanta Falcons (2001-04), Feely boasted an 82.7 field goal percentage and was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2005. In 2014, he joined CBS Sports as an analyst for CBS Sports Network's college football coverage, and was named an analyst for THE NFL ON CBS two years later. As their kicking analyst, Feely has covered Super Bowl LV, LIII and 50; the AFC Championship Game (2015-21); the 2016 and 2017 seasons; and Thursday Night football games in 2015. He also serves as a game analyst for NFL ON CBS games.

Active in the community, Feely was recognized as the 2013 Arizona Cardinals Man of the Year for his philanthropic efforts and currently serves as Vice President of the Muscular Dystrophy Association. He founded the Feely Family Foundation to focus on the protection, education and rehabilitation of children, providing scholarships in Arizona, Michigan and Haiti.

WHEN: Sunday, February 13 from 4:00 – 6:00 p.m.
