The Clifford Pier Mooncake Tingkat

The Clifford Pier Mooncake Tingkat

Returning for a third year by popular request, The Clifford Pier Mooncake Tingkat tells a tale of nostalgia about the bustling hawker scene that surrounded Clifford Pier in days of yore. Updated for modern times, this year's custom-designed tiffin carrier takes inspiration from Peranakan heritage with floral motifs and Chinese calligraphy-style characters, 花好月圆, to depict a full moon.

Each tiffin carrier contains four baked mooncakes in signature flavours that reflect the diversity of Singapore's hawker cuisine. Combining seemingly contrasting ingredients and flavours from nutty and spicy to fruity and sweet, they deliver a harmonious outcome that is in turn familiar and surprising.

The Baked Mixed Nuts with Satay Sauce brings a local twist to the well-loved Cantonese mixed nuts mooncake, with a mixture of almonds, macadamia nuts, walnuts, sesame seeds and melon seeds, sweetened with candied tangerine and melon. Lime leaf, commonly used in local recipes, cuts the richness with a citrusy aroma. A final dash of satay sauce imparts an authentic local flavour.

The umami-rich Baked Salted Lotus with Hae Bee Hiam, or spicy dried shrimp paste, teases and awakens the palate, serving as a contrast to the other flavours in the collection. In the Baked Assam

Lotus with Mango, tamarind tea is infused into the lotus paste, which contains dried mango. While these two ingredients are seldom paired in local recipes, the tangy notes of assam complement the sweetness of mango for a unique and pleasing tropical flavour.

The collection is rounded off with Baked Pandan Coconut with Chendol, made with desiccated coconut, pandan leaves and chendol ingredients, which are ground into a smooth paste for a rich and creamy outcome.
