The Barossa

isn't just a destination it's a journey

A culinary journey. An historic journey. From pasture to plate. From vine to wine. And the journey starts with the dirt.

Rated as one of the world's top wine destinations

alongside Bordeaux and Tuscany, the Barossa is home to more than 170 wine companies and 80 cellar doors to explore.

Of course the wine is matched to an abundance of fresh local produce and gourmet products

all sourced locally by the queen of cooking Maggie Beer's daughter, Saskia Beer exclusively for Novotel Barossa Valley Resort.

Novotel Barossa Valley Resort is centrally located just outside the township of Rowland Flat and is the only 4.5 STAR conference venue in the Barossa. Up to 250 delegates can be catered for in nine flexible function rooms with conference and dinner menus inspired by Saskia Beer and wine of the Barossa region.

Each of the 140 accommodation rooms feature private balconies with sweeping views across the Jacob's Creek vineyards and Barossa Ranges offering a comfortable, and relaxing base to explore this wonderful region.

We look forward to welcoming you to Australia's best wine region

How to get to the Barossa Valley

An easy 75-minute drive north east of Adelaide brings you to the welcoming gates of Novotel Barossa Valley Resort, nestled between the townships of Tanunda and Lyndoch in the rolling hills of one of the world's most popular regional wine and food escapes.

Coach or Tour Company

If group travel is required, let us know when making your booking so we can assist with information on bus and tour group travel operators who service the region from Adelaide and surrounding areas. A transfer from Adelaide Airport to the Resort is around $820 for a 48 seat coach.

Public Transport

The Adelaide Metro Rail operates a daily service from the Adelaide Railway Station to the township of Gawler on the outskirts of Barossa.

From there, LinksSA operates a daily regional bus service which connects to the township of Rowland Flat.

The Barossa Valley

Perfectly located in Rowland Flat, just outside the main township of Tanunda, the Novotel Barossa Valley Resort is close to all the major wineries and experiences such as Jacob's Creek and Chateau Tanunda.

Providers

BAROSSA CHEESE COMPANY

For Victoria McClurg, owner of the Barossa Valley Cheese Company, making cheese is a labour of love. First opened in 2003 in the idyllic town of Angaston, Barossa Valley Cheese Company has won a prolific number of awards and has expanded to offer 25 different styles of cheese imbued with the character of the locale and passion of the maker.

MAGGIE BEER'S FARM SHOP

Creating short run products based on the best quality produce in season is how Maggie started the farm shop. Visit for an opportunity to pick your own collection of goodies from Maggie's famous products or simply sit back and take in the view. Free Verjuice cooking demonstrations take place at 2pm every day.

BAROSSA FARMER'S MARKET

Real food from the farms and homes of the Barossa. Permanently located undercover in the Vintner's Sheds in Angaston, the Barossa Farmer's Market has an amazing array of stallholders selling a beautiful selection of fresh fruit and vegetables, herbs, meats, specialty breads, famous smallgoods, and so much more.

LOCAL PRODUCERS GALORE

Food is an integral part of the Barossa community; a multifaceted, continually evolving ode to seasonality and region. Discover artisan food prepared with care and passion, and of time honoured recipes passed down through six generations.

Weine

There are some 750 grape growing families, many sixth generation, supplying quality grapes to more than 170 wine companies of all shapes and sizes.
