RESPONSIBLE TOURISM

We want your stay in our country to be pleasant, so we share some suggestions for you to enjoy our culture.

LA ANTIGUA

1

Be attentive and respectful of local culture and standards

2

Ask before taking pictures in religious sites, holy places, special events. If you want to photograph the local people, always ask permission before doing so. Most people will be happy to pose for you.

3

Be discreet in expressing your point of view on cultural issues and beliefs.

4

It is important to dress and behave appropriately in cultural and religious areas, respecting local sensibilities.

5

Buy local products, including handicrafts and local arts.

6

You can show respect to the local culture by learning words and phrases in the local language.
