CLUB MYKONOS WINS AT RCI AWARDS

On the 17th March 2015 RCI celebrated the leaders in the South African vacation-ownership industry at the 27th annual OSCAS Gala Awards hosted at the Velmor Hotel Estate in Pretoria. The ceremony, hosted by, Dimitris Manikis, VP Business Development EMEA, was set to commend the success of the group's industry partners.

Club Mykonos received top honours at the black tie event in the both General Manager Of The Year and the Green categories respectively. The resort beat out competition from renowned establishments such as Ngwenya Lodge, La Montagne, Morrumbene Beach Resort, Perna Perna St Lucia, The Peninsula and Lake View Cabanas, all of which were nominated in the same hotly contested categories.

The resort's General Manger, Jonathan Kilroe-Smith, attended the glitzy function and accepted the awards. Mr Kliroe-Smith was delighted to receive the illustrious awards and is honoured to be recognized for the years of hard work that both himself and his team have put into the resort, which remains a firm favorite holiday destination.

Jon and Club Mykonos look forward to the coming year as they will work dedicatedly to improve on the world class service and the facilities they have on offer the hospitality industry and their home, the West Coast.
