STEIN ERIKSEN RESIDENCES
DEER VALLEY

Welcome

“After a successful soft launch this past winter season, the Residences proved to be the perfect complement to our renowned Stein Eriksen Lodge and collective lodging options offered from Stein Collection.”

—Russ Olsen, CEO

WHERE LUXURY LIVES

The pinnacle of alpine luxury, Stein Eriksen Residences consists of 39 exquisite condominiums and 15 private mountain modern homes, each one claiming its own distinct, contemporary design. Stein Eriksen Residences has mastered the perfect blend of nature, amenities, accommodations, dining, and year-round recreation, and is quickly garnering recognition as Park City’s premier lodging destination.

Easy to Access

Park City is a short and easy 45-minute ride from Salt Lake City International Airport, which offers over 900 daily scheduled flights to all major cities in North America and many direct international flights daily, and is served by 15 airlines. In Park City, visitors and residents enjoy access to world-class recreation, cultural activities, exceptional dining, and spectacular mountain backdrops year-round. Our mountain town is home to two world-renowned resorts: Deer Valley Resort and Park City Mountain Resort, both venues during the 2002 Olympic Winter Games.

Weather

Park City, Utah weather is ideal for a multitude of seasonally-based activities. The town peaks around 82 degrees in the hottest summer month, creating a temperate summer getaway. The temperatures cool to the low teens during the coldest part of the winter season, ideal for maintaining perfect snow conditions. Park City receives an average of 21 inches of rain per year and 340 inches of snowfall on average each winter season. The town boasts 229 average sunny days per year. Our seasonal weather makes this community ideal for year-round adventure & welcomes travels all year long.

In The Words Of Stein:

“We are here to serve our guests.”

—Stein Eriksen

THE LEGEND LIVES ON

Stein Eriksen: an innovator, a world champion, and an Olympic Gold Medalist who revolutionized the alpine skiing world. Stein’s pursuit of the best has been infused into the Stein Collection properties and is exemplified in how staff and guests interact. Named after this legendary man, every Stein Collection property strives to maintain the highest standards in service and amenities, and upholds the standards that Stein lived by every day.

History of Stein

Born in Oslo, Norway on December 11, 1927, Stein was born into a family of skiers. His interest in the Olympics and skiing was gained by observing his father, a skier, Olympic gymnast, and manufacturer of ski equipment. Stein trained as a gymnast and skier. He was charted as the first male alpine ski racer from outside the Alps to win an Olympic gold medal.

While still racing for Norway, Stein moved to the United States in 1954 and became a ski instructor at Sun Valley in Idaho. Stein moved throughout the U.S. and was titled Ski Director at various resorts, including resorts in Michigan, Vermont, California, Colorado, and Utah. Other accomplishments of his include being credited with devising “aerials” and revolutionizing the world of alpine skiing. Stein Eriksen remains a role model for those who strive for success and recognition in the sport of skiing. He will forever be remembered for his outstanding accomplishments and true love of skiing.

Stein’s Lifetime Achievements

- 1949 Slalom Champion (Norway)
- 1950 World Championship Bronze Medalist (Aspen Colorado)
- 1952 Winter Olympics Giant Slalom Gold Medalist and Slalom Silver Medalist (Oslo, Norway)
- 1954 World Championship Slalom/Giant Slalom/Combined Gold Medalist (Are, Sweden)
- 1981 Named Director of Skiing at Deer Valley Resort
- 1982 National Ski Hall of Fame Inductee
- 1997 Knighted with the Royal Norwegian Order for Merit by the King of Norway
